THE SAUDI BRITISH SOCIETY

TRUSTEES' REPORT (CONTINUED) FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 DECEMBER 2010

Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document

The Society was formed on 19 January 1987 to further cordial relations between Britain and Saudi Arabia. The Saudi British Society was registered by the Charity Commission on 23 May 1991. The charity has a trust deed which sets out the Society's objects and powers.

Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees

Appointment of trustees is governed by the Trust Deed of the charity. The Board of Trustees is authorised to appoint new trustees to fill vacancies arising through resignation or death of an existing trustee.

Trustee Induction

Trustees are given documents relating to the rules and obligations of trustees as set out by the Charity Commission.

Risk management

The trustees actively review the major risks which the Society faces on a regular basis and believe that maintaining reserves at current levels, combined with an annual review of the controls over key financial systems, will provide sufficient resources in the event of adverse conditions. The trustees have also examined other operational and business risks faced by the charity and confirm that they have established systems to mitigate the significant risks.

Organisational Structure

The Society has a President who is always the Saudi Arabian Ambassador in London, and an elected Committee. The Society has an honorary Secretary and Treasurer. There is also a part-time administrator.

Objectives and Activities

The Society's objects are to help promote closer friendship and understanding between the people of Saudi Arabia and the United Kingdom. The Society is a social, cultural, non-political and non-commercial organisation. It aims to bring together British citizens who have an interest in Saudi Arabia and Saudi Arabian citizens who are resident in, visitors to or interested in the UK. It aims also to provide a medium through which hospitality may be offered to Saudi Arabians visiting or living in the UK.

In planning its activities for the year, the Society's trustees have considered the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit.

The Society's activities have included receptions for important visitors, dinners, exhibitions and lectures. The Society takes an active interest in the activities of the King Fahd Academy in Ealing and, with the generous and valuable support of British Aerospace, presents a silver cup and a cheque each year to the boy and girl nominated as best student by the Headmaster and Headmistress.

Achievements and Performance

In January 2010 the two Al Rawabi Group prizes for outstanding contribution to Saudi-British relations were presented. The winners were Prof. Nigel Heaton of Kings College Hospital for his work in the field of liver surgery and to Col. Nigel Bromage, former head of the British Mission to the National Guard, in recognition of his long service to the Kingdom. The presentations took place in January with a buffet dinner, and were made by their donor, Mr Abdul Aziz Al Turki.

The year also saw an interesting programme of talks, which have all been well-attended. In April 2010, Ali Almihdar, a Saudi Lawyer who also practises at the English Bar, spoke on the origins of Sharia law. The talk was attended by several London barristers. In June 2010, the Society's Annual General Meeting, held at the Arab-British Chamber of Commerce, was followed by a talk by Dr. Samar Fatany, entitled "The media as a catalyst for change in Saudi Arabia". The talk was followed by a question and answer session and a Reception. In October 2010, Prof. Bruce Ingham who was, until his retirement, Emeritus Professor of Arabic Dialect Studies in the Department of Linguistics at SOAS, University of London, gave a lecture entitled "The Tribes of Arabia with a particular focus on the tribes of Saudi Arabia" at the Arab-British Chamber of Commerce. In November 2010, artist and author, Mr. Peter Upton gave a talk entitled "The Arab Horse in Saudi Arabia and Britain: how pure Arab horses reached Europe from their original home in Arabia", at the Arab-British Chamber of Commerce.

A new two year cultural, artistic and educational exchange programme entitled Painting & Patronage has been announced under the patronage of HRH Prince Khalid al Faisal, Governor of Mecca, and HRH The Prince of Wales. The Society fully supports this important initiative and has been invited to participate in the programme.

The Society has been working actively to identify and contact members of the Saudi student body, who are invited to attend meetings, and given concessionary membership rates.

Financial review

The attached financial statements summarise the Society's transactions for the year ended 31 December 2010. The trustees are satisfied with the financial situation of the Society.

Principal Funding Sources

The Society's principal sources of funding are:-

- (a) members' subscriptions;
- (b) members' contributions towards events held by the Society.

Investment Policy

The Trust Deed authorises the trustees to make and hold investments using the general funds of the charity. The investments undertaken by the Trustees have now recovered their value, following falls in 2008/9 and are now showing a modest surplus. The Trustees took independent advice before making the investments, and continue to take independent advice regarding the portfolio composition. The funds will be retained in a cautious portfolio.

Reserves policy

It is the policy of the charity to maintain unrestricted funds at a level which equate to approximately 12 months unrestricted expenditure. This provides sufficient funds to cover management and administration and support costs. Unrestricted funds are maintained at at least this level throughout the year.

Plans for Future Periods

The fifth annual Al Rawabi Holdings Prizes were presented in February 2011. Further talks on a range of topics are planned for 2011.

Trustees' responsibilities

Law applicable to charities in England and Wales requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the charity's financial activities during the year and of its financial position at the end of the year. In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- (a) select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- (b) make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- (c) state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- (d) prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 1993. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Independent Examiner

The trustees intend to ask the existing accountants to undertake the independent examination of the Society's accounts in the following year.

This report was approved by the trustees on 29 June 2011 and is signed on their behalf.

THE SAUDI BRITISH SOCIETY

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES

I report on the accounts of the Society for the year ended 31 December 2010, which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, the Balance Sheet and the related notes.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts; you consider that the audit requirement of section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the Act) does not apply, and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts under section 43(3)(a) of the Act and to state, on the basis of procedures specified in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners under section 43(7)(b) of the Act, whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matters have come to my attention:

- 1) which give me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the Act;
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the Act have not been met; or

- 2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

1 Accounting policies

The principal accounting policies are summarised below. The accounting policies have been applied consistently throughout the year and in the preceding year.

1.1 Basis of preparation of the accounts

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective April 2008). In preparing the financial statements the charity follows best practice as laid down in the Statement of Recommended Practice "Accounting and Reporting by Charities" issued in 2005.

1.2 Incoming resources

Subscriptions and donations are recorded as income in the period in which they are received, except where the donor specifies that the donation should be used for a specific period.

1.3 Resources expended

Resources expended are included in the Statement of Financial Activities on an accruals basis, inclusive of any VAT which cannot be recovered.

Costs of generating funds comprise costs directed related to the Society's activities during the year, including the costs of holding the buffet evening and lectures.

Governance costs represents accountancy fees. All other expenditure is included under charitable expenditure.
